Embrace the past. Live for the future...

Discover a place with purpose, a community with heart and soul. An idyllic location and lifestyle filled with moments you'll want to capture and cherish.

MAKE SOME HISTORY

It begins with an appreciation for a neighbourhood, for heritage and honouring the past. At the same time, it's also about recognizing being in the present and capturing the modern spirit of a dynamic location full of lifestyle inspiration. The magic is bringing the two together.

Owning the corner of downtown Georgetown's main thoroughfare at Main and Mill Streets, McGibbon on Main condominiums breathe new life into this celebrated heritage site.

LIVE LIFE TO THE FULLEST

CREATE TIMELESS MEMORIES

MAKE SOME HISTORY

Rising just 10-storeys, this intimate building's base is grounded in the history of the original McGibbon Hotel. As a tribute, the classic 1890's red-brick base and facades have been restored to act as the podium for a cascading series of residential units. Contemporary sandstone units rise 7-storeys showcasing 2-storey lofts at the top of the building. Expansive terraces are open to the elements, while balconies are nestled into the crenellations of the building's form providing more protected outdoor space.

Embrace yesterday.
Create tomorrow.

As a town rich in history, it's important to acknowledge and preserve the lineage that lead us to today.

Georgetown was named after entrepreneur George Kennedy who settled in the area in 1821 and built several mills and other businesses. In 1856 The Grand Trunk Railway reached the community providing transportation to not only passengers but manufactured goods and the inspiration to open hotels.

The Hotel McGibbon was built and sold to Thomas Clark in about 1867. In 1895, brothers Sam & John McGibbon leased, in partnership, Clark's Hotel for $600/year. The hotel, situated in the heart of the village's business district, attracted travelling salesmen gathering for a merchandise roadshow called The Drummer' Snack, which was held in Georgetown and the McGibbon Hotel was the headquarters.

The hotel included an icehouse which stored ice cut from the old Barber Pond. Fresh eggs and milk arrived daily at the hotel from a farm which Sam McGibbon owned.

There were several shops at the front of the hotel and a barbershop located on the Mill Street side of the hotel, reputed to be a favourite gambling spot. When prohibition was legislated many hotelkeepers 'bootlegged', but not Sam McGibbon. Sam's wife, Ann, kept white linen in the dining room and was a popular location for fashionable wedding receptions and banquets.

The McGibbon family lived at the hotel and took great pride in the business they had established over the years. After the passing of Sam and his wife in 1940, their daughter, Gladys and a son, Jack, took over the business until 1962. The business was then sold to a Toronto investment firm in 1967 – almost 100 years after Thomas Clark had purchased the hotel.

MAKE THE MOST OUT OF LIFE

MAKE SOME HISTORY

Imagine a place where whatever inspires you, finds you. A location as lush and lively, as it is cultured and urban. A tucked away haven wrapped in idyllic nature that rekindles all the charm of small-town living, yet also celebrates big city conveniences. A real community with its own unique character and history, that's still close enough to Toronto to catch a Jays game. It's all here inviting an enviable quality of life full of possibilities.

It's in our nature.

Epic, adventurous, breathtaking, and scenic – just a few choice words to describe the natural wonderland that is Georgetown. Here surrounded by the landmark beauty of the Niagara escarpment nature inspires. From picturesque farmers' fields and magic forests to exquisite gardens, parks, conservation areas and trails; nature lovers, hikers, cyclists, picnickers, and birders alike will find exactly what they're looking for.

A walk in a lot of parks.

Take a walk, stroll through a garden, pack up a gourmet picnic or just make a huge splash! With over 30 local parks ranging in activities from playgrounds and splash pads to sports fields, skate ramps and the perfect picnic spots, you'll find just the right place. An absolute must-visit is the Dominion Gardens Park right in the centre of town. Home to formal gardens, meandering pathways, a pond and the historic Dominion Seed House, there's also a beautiful picnic pavilion.

Eco & kid-friendly!

For a day full of family fun that the kids will always remember the Willow Park Eco Centre is the place! This year-round, 5-acre nature preserve provides a habitat for native plants and animals. Explore diverse trails that lead to unique habitats such as the butterfly garden, snake hibernaculum and turtle nesting areas as well as a variety of theme gardens. The park also hosts a series of workshops, recreational programs, and events for all ages to learn about local wildlife and how to ensure a greener future.

Hit some epic dirt.

Calling all tree huggers, trailblazers, and explorers – get set for an adventure off the beaten track. Georgetown is closely connected to the Halton Hills system of over 30 km of hiking and biking trails inviting something for every type of nature lover. Start with a meander along the Hungry Hollow's boardwalks or check out the 10-metre waterfall in Hilton Falls Conservation Area. Dare devils can climb around cliffs, caves, and glacial potholes at the Rockwood Conservation Area, while those looking to earn their trekking badge on the famous Bruce Trail can head out just north of Georgetown.

It's for the birds & dogs!

Discover one of the best places to go hiking and bird watching in Halton Hills. The Silver Creek Conservation Area invites a serene, wooded nature preserve with dog-friendly, trails that span over 1,080 acres. Trek along a boardwalk trail through lush forests, valleys, and babbling brooks with magnificent escarpment views. There are multiple trails to choose from, some that even connect to the Bruce, so you'll definitely be back for more.

A day & night in the life of Georgetown.

Wake up bright and early and set out along one of the prettiest main streets in Halton Hills. Take in the picturesque historic downtown boasting all the quaint feels of small-town charm and friendly community vibes. Here you will discover a vibrant hub of cultural activity along with plenty of places to shop, dine and treat yourself to the good life.

TOP 5 THINGS TO DO IN GEORGETOWN

Festivals & Fairs

Love ribs? How about craft beer? Come out and celebrate both along with a fun filled assortment of seasonal holiday and cultural events. Everyone's favourite is the annual Fall Fair a local institution since 1846 featuring a midway, farm animals, vendors, plenty of food and entertainment, including the classic demolition derby and truck pulls! Georgetown is also host to the Highland Games.

The Helson Gallery

Come for the art but be sure to admire the original stained-glass windows of this vintage church turned modern gallery. Elegant and tranquil enjoy rotating monthly showings of local artists, as well as famous Canadian collections such as Robert Bateman.

The Farmer's Market

There's no better place to meander, meet and greet fellow fresh foodie friends than at the Georgetown Farmers' Market. Established in 1993, the market celebrates the area's rich farming history showcasing only Ontario produced and locally crafted goods. Wander the aisles for local seasonal fruit and vegetables, honey, syrup and jams, deli meat items, as well as hand-made botanical soaps and lotions and local artisan crafts. The Market opens Saturdays 8-12:30 from Jun 5 - Oct 16.

The John Elliott Theatre

Catch a live theatrical performance in Georgetown's very own playhouse. The theatre space is part of a church built in 1854 and refurbished to serve as a library in 1915. The John Elliott Theatre features a wide proscenium, sizable stage, orchestra pit and 267 seats for plays, artistic performances, and films.

Williams Mill Art Studio

Get inspired as you wander through the Williams Mill Creative Arts Studio where you can browse, watch and shop as local artisans create their wares. The diverse collection of over thirty artist studios works in glass, silver, textile, clay, wood, watercolour painting and more. The Studio invites the opportunity to display art through exhibitions, art shows and the sale at the retail outlet.

Make the connection

There's an enviable quality of life where you're conveniently close to everything you want and need but just far enough away from the hustle and bustle of the city.

Georgetown proper has a plethora of urban amenities right where you live, plus as part of the town of Halton Hills, you can enjoy visiting the town's several other small villages such as Norval, Limehouse, Stewarttown, Glen Williams and Acton.

That said if you're looking to commute or visit Toronto and the surrounding GTA, it's a breeze. Georgetown is just 60 km west of Toronto via highway 401 and 407 and there's also a handy GO Train Station that offers accessible transportation to-and-from Toronto.
